Final:

The house was built in 1870 by Thaddeus Bean who initially rented and then sold the properties that make up Lot B (900, 902, 904 S. Carolina, SE). The first residents of 900 S. Carolina, SE were the Van Horns who moved into the house in 1870 and had an active grocery store; they bought the house in ~1889 and the property stayed in the family till 1921. The house/store was vacant or rented from 1892-1921 (Hoopers, Robertsons, and Cuozzos). The Cuozzos decide to buy the property in 1921. The store ceased being an active store in 1968 but was lived in by the Cuozzo family till 1995. The researchers and current residents are Roy H. Mustelier and Kris Swanson. Kris, a sculptor, uses the store area as her studio.
